April Winstock : Eating and Drinking Difficulties in Children: A Guide for Practitioners before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Eating and Drinking Difficulties in Children: A Guide for Practitioners:

Clearly illustrated, this is the ultimate practical handbook for all professionals working with children with eating and drinking difficulties, and an essential guide for all students studying this area of therapy. Covering the complex issues involved in the field of eating and drinking difficulties in children, this text: examines the theoretical background while maintaining a clear focus on its practical application; provides essential information on all the relevant issues; contains an invaluable range of photocopiable material for each chapter, which can be given to families and professional colleagues; provides a range of appendices with details of useful resources including a reference list and suppliers of equipment. April Winstock is a Speech Language Therapist who is registered with the Health Professionals Council and has worked at the Bobath Centre, London, special schools and hospitals. She has been running courses on eating drinking difficulties in children for many years. April currently has her own practice in which she sees children with a range of communication and eating problems.
